

A Message from SoVita Chiropractic Centers CEO Karlos Boghosian, D.C. Regarding COVID-19

With the concerns about coronavirus and COVID-19, I want to assure you that we at SoVita Chiropractic Centers are doing everything possible to protect the safety and well-being of the people and communities we serve, our team of healthcare providers and our paraprofessionals.

Our goal is to continue serving our patients with highest quality chiropractic care while remaining a health information resource center. Knowing there are many questions, our dedicated team of chiropractors are ready to provide tips and best practices about pressing topics such as:

- How to boost your immune system during the outbreak
- How to manage stress and anxiety
- How to keep your kids, family and loved ones as healthy as possible

Our offices remain open to serve you and your families during these unprecedented times. We know when you choose us as your chiropractic office, you are placing your trust, your kids trust and families trust into our hands. We take that responsibility extremely seriously. Over the years we at SoVita Chiropractic Center have worked tirelessly to be America's most patient centered chiropractic office and we are fully prepared to handle crisis of this magnitude.

We are closely monitoring recommendations and protocols established by the World Health Organization (WHO), the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and local health departments in regard to COVID-19.

As a precautionary measure, we are prepared to protect you during your office visits. We have implemented many procedures including:

- Increased hygiene routines in all of common and private patient areas
- Sanitization of all chiropractic tables, chairs and equipment
- We have rearranged our welcome/waiting areas to provide more space and distance from other patients

Our entire team is ready to schedule your appointments and work with you to ensure you are comfortable during your visits.

I want to reiterate my commitment, and that of the SoVita Chiropractic's professionals, to safely care for you and people who mean the most to you. We appreciate your loyalty and never take it for granted.
